
Size Acceptance meetings - London

Posted by asgartha - 2012/12/26 02:05

Hello all!

i wish everyone a happy festive season, I am wondering if there are any size-possitive size-acceptance meetings in London.

I am pretty sure several years ago I had found an ENglish site which was also facilitating meetings. I thought big people was the one, but I do not see anything now really...

Is this an active community, is there anything around size awareness, fat rights and so on in Lodnon?

I do not talk about fetish focused BBW meetings (such as the girls paradise) but more political ones, who are more about size acceptance rather than bbw fetish...

Thank you in advance :)

Gina

You could always try one of the club nights. One new club you might want to consider is at Club Indulge
