Hi there :-) My friend and I are both plus size women and have just started a public facebook page seling plus sized clothes, jewellery and accessories. I am a full time carer for my Mum and husband and so unable to work away from home and my friend is a full time Mum so we thought something we could run from home would be perfect. We both love clothes and people :-) Please come and have a nose... <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Through-The-Looking-Glass/430569637033459>

Love and thanks, Jen and Alice xxx
