
Have you ever been offered money to put on weight?

Hi all,

I'm looking to put together a feature to tie in with a new show that's starting on Channel 5 next week about women who make money by flaunting their figures online.

They are savvy women who are proud of their bodies but who also know that fuller figures are big business. Some will gain weight on demand (for a fee) while others make money from posting pictures and videos of themselves online.

The show was made in America but I'm looking to get in touch with anyone who does this in the UK, or has ever been offered money in exchange for pictures and videos. Do you or anyone you know have any experience of this?

I'd be looking to interview women for a feature in the Sunday Mirror. They would need to be prepared to be named and photographed. Interviews can be done over the phone or in person, depending on location and they can submit photos or we can send a photographer.

Get in touch if you can help,

Hi Ruby,

Thanks for getting in touch. Do you have an email address I can contact you on so we can have a bit more of a chat?

If you don't want to publish it on here, feel free to drop me a line at frankicookney@gmail.com instead and we'll go from there.
