
Families wanted for new non-judgemental Sky doc

Posted by SpunGoldTV - 2011/06/08 10:43

Spun Gold TV are currently casting for a new one-off documentary for Sky exploring attitudes to food and eating within families.

We are looking for families who are happy and proud of their size, are fast food fans or have had enough of the received wisdom about big people and lectures on healthy eating.

Or perhaps you're trying to curb your family's eating habits but are struggling.

This is a non-judgemental, observational documentary with no finger wagging experts. So if this sounds like you, or you'd like to find out more, get in touch with the team on families@spungoldtv.com or call us on 020 7605 6926

Looking forward to hearing from you!
